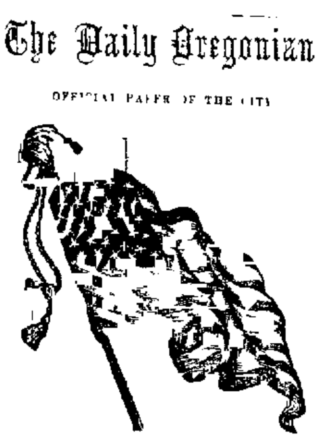
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it, ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

TUESDAY MORNING APRIL 7 1863

By Telegraph

We publish a long budget this morning from which it will be seen that the rumors as to the evacuation of Richmond are becoming stronger, and are now based upon more reliable grounds than heretofore. If any such movement should take place, it can only be caused by the absolute impossibility to subsist the rebel army any longer in Virginia, and the fear that all their present sources of supply will be cut off, by the progress of the Federal troops in North Carolina and Tennessee. So mote it be.

The intelligence from the South-west is not favorable; two gunboats have been badly smashed, and the expedition of Gen Sherman from which grand results were anticipated, has not accomplished its design. There is no occasion for discouragement, however, as the destruction of Vicksburg, though delayed and perhaps made more costly than was expected, is sure. The whole power of the Government, aided by the earnest and passionate zeal of the people of the North-west, whose hearts are set upon the free navigation of the Mississippi, will be employed for this purpose until it is accomplished.

Another doomed city is near the fatal hour which will see it prostrate and helpless. The attack on Charleston has commenced, and ere this, we trust it has ended with so much destruction of the strength and power of the hot-bed of rebellion as was necessary to secure its submission to the control of the Government. If wholly laid waste, not much sympathy will be expressed or felt, save for the fortunes of neutrals and not many of these were left in Charleston.

INSUBORDINATION OF MCCLELLAN.—The following appears in a special dispatch from Washington on the 19th of February, to the New York Tribune:

The letter of Gen. Scott to the War Department in October, 1861, a copy of which was called for by the Senate to day, was written when Gen Scott was still General in Chief and Gen. McClellan in command of the Army of the Potomac. In this epistle Gen Scott complains of Gen. McClellan's insubordination, and begs the Secretary of War to devise some means to put a stop to it. The dispatches which have passed between Gen. McClellan and his superiors since he came to Washington will soon be sent to Congress, in response to a resolution calling for them. They will make a bulky volume.

WHAT THE VETERANS THINK.—The veterans of the war of 1812 in Philadelphia, celebrated Washington's birthday with appropriate ceremonies. Among the resolutions adopted by them was the following:

Resolved, That we consider it the imperative duty of the National Government to use all the means in its power to ferret out and punish, in the most exemplary manner, traitors, perpetrators of the gigantic frauds committed by unprincipled contractors, and other swindlers, whether in office or out of office, from the highest to the lowest, without fear, favor or affection.

GEN. ROSECRANS.—Gen Rosecrans, whose patriotic letter we published a day or two ago, is a democrat, but he sees no connection between democracy and treason. So he adheres to his democracy while he hurls bitter imprecations against all who are in sympathy with traitors, of whatever party name. He is the representative of the fighting, not the growling, democracy, and, unlike the growlers, he will never be ashamed of his record.

THE DIFFERENCE.—The statement that pro slavery democrats hate the negro, is not literally true. They hate him, if he is free—a man, but they love him if he is a slave, and is willing to put himself under bonds never to escape from bondage.

EFFECTS OF THE AMERICAN WAR.—The solidarity, to use an expressive French word, of the human race, and its community of interests, are strikingly brought out by the effects of the present civil war in the United States. That war rages only around the borders of the seceded States, but its effects are felt throughout the world. Is there misery in Virginia and Tennessee? so is there in Lancashire, and the manufacturing districts of France and Germany. Nay, from missionary reports we learn that the native weavers in India are in great distress on account of the high price of raw cotton, and that the Nestorians, in Persia, whose clothing is almost wholly of cotton, find it difficult to sustain themselves on account of the greatly enhanced price of apparel. In a word, every nation that grows, manufactures or uses cotton is effected just in proportion to its interest in that universal staple.—Montreal Witness.

THE RESOURCES OF NEW ENGLAND.—New England has an area of 62,383 square miles, not so large as even the state of Missouri or Virginia. She has a population of 3,135,000—not so many as the single State of New York. But with fewer people, she is far richer than the Empire State, which has a total valuation of $1,442,000,000, while Massachusetts alone possesses $898,000,000, or nearly two thirds of that sum. Of 5,000,000 spindles in the United States New England owns 3,900,000. Of $116,137,000 worth of cotton goods produced in 1860 New England produced $80,300,000. Of $68,860,000 worth of woolen goods produced in 1860, New England produced $38,500,000. She also owns about one-half of the shipping of the nation, which, in round numbers, now amounts to 5,000,000. And in population as in all their material interests, she is yet increasing.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE [illegible])

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to March 31st!

WASHINGTON, March 2[illegible].—Richmond papers of late dates contain a full description of the rebel steamer Georgiana, [illegible] was an iron vessel, and left England with [illegible] ($1,000,000) [illegible] which was [illegible] was that [illegible] under Jackson is now [illegible] Port Royal, destined [illegible] that [illegible].

NEW YORK, March [illegible].—The following was received by the [illegible] parties having sent a protest to Earl Russell against fitting out vessels in England for the Confederates, he replied by pointing to the Act of Parliament requiring evidence in order to enable proceedings to be taken against parties suspected of breaking the law.

LATEST Richmond papers say Judge Meredith, of the [illegible] Court, has decided that every citizen of Maryland and every foreigner that ever resided in the rebel army, no matter for how short a time, is liable to conscription between 18 and 45 years of age.

Another [illegible] the rebel army arrived at Norfolk yesterday. He reports that the rebels are evacuating Richmond as fast as possible.

At Fortress Monroe on the 2[illegible] the enemy attacked Williamsburg with infantry and cavalry, but were repulsed, and [illegible] were [illegible] established. The enemy attacked [illegible] a few days since, but were repulsed after a fight of an hour and a half.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC, March 30.—The following is from the Richmond dispatches of the 27th:

Mobile, March 25.—Official intelligence has been received of the evacuation of Pensacola by the enemy; they now occupy Fort Barrancas. The garrison of the town and all other troops that could be spared, have been sent to Gen Banks.

Vicksburg, March 25.—Two of the enemy's boats attempted to pass down the river this morning, but our batteries opened on them, and one was sunk and the other badly riddled, and she now lies opposite the canal batteries. It is expected that she will soon sink. She was set on fire, but the fire was extinguished.

Jackson, Miss., March 25.—The following was received this morning from Vicksburg: Four boats came to town at sunrise this morning, and two of them attempted to pass the batteries; one was sunk with all on board, and the other was disabled [illegible].

Vicksburg, March 26.—On Saturday morning Col Ferguson, commanding the batteries at the junction of Deer Creek and the Sunflower river, 35 miles above the junction of the Sunflower, repulsed the enemy and destroyed three gunboats, and drove the balance back. Col Ferguson has sufficient force to hold the enemy in check. Heavy reinforcements to be sent in the rear of the enemy to cut off his retreat.

KANSAS CITY, March [illegible].—Capt Bowd[illegible] of the steamer Sam Gaty, from Independence, Mo., reports that while passing Tabby's Landing he was assaulted by guerrillas, who succeeded in boarding the boat and taking a number of soldiers. After that they robbed the passengers, and threw overboard a lot of provisions and Government wagons.

CAIRO, March 30.—The steamer Glendale brings Memphis papers to the 27th. It was positively known that the expedition down Deer Creek and the Sunflower river, had proved safe and that a very large force had landed above Haines' Bluff.

A Confederate raid was made on Austin, Arkansas, above Helena, a few days ago. They cut the levees and flooded the country.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Admiral Dupont in a report to the War Department attaches much importance to the destruction of the Georgiana, which he says was brought over by a British officer and intended for the Confederate navy. On the night of the 18th of March she attempted to run into Charleston, but was chased into the harbor. The alarm was given and the Wabash opened her heaviest guns upon her, when her commander said he had surrendered. The Wabash then ceased firing, when the captain of the Georgiana took advantage of it and run his vessel aground. Capt Davis of the Wabash, together with his officers and crew, boarded [illegible] the Georgiana could not be saved [illegible] set her on fire.

LOUISVILLE, March 30th.—Passengers from Winchester report Humphrey Marshall with a heavy infantry force, near Mount Sterling. The rebels were driving stock from all directions toward that place and coming towards Lexington. All is quiet along the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

NEW YORK, March 31.—The steamer McClellan from New Orleans, has arrived with dates to 22d. A bottle containing a dispatch from Farragut's fleet had been picked up.—It said that the troops were all well. We had [illegible] men killed and two wounded. Several [illegible] had arrived at New Orleans from across the lake with a large quantity of cotton and wheat. A number of passengers were compelled to come in order to get something to eat. They relate that great destitution and sufferings exist among the rebels.—The Picayune of the 20th, reports that the Monongahela, whose machinery was uninjured during the fight, has repaired her woodwork and is again in fighting trim.

NEW YORK, March 31st.—The Tribune has a dispatch from Washington stating that some of Gen Dix's officers report that they had satisfied themselves from various circumstances that the rebels are preparing to evacuate Richmond, and have already moved a quantity of supplies. The [illegible] believes that the show of Hooker and the [illegible] demonstrations on Washington, are intended to mask the real object, and that they intend to concentrate in front of Rosecrans, to drive him back and occupy [illegible] Kentucky. These [illegible] are shared by the principal officers of the Army of the Potomac.

An expedition from [illegible] army under Fairchilds returned to [illegible] Plains yesterday. They captured several prisoners, a quantity of pork, bacon and meal, a number of horses and mules. They also surprised [illegible] Virginia.

A Hilton Head letter says that Beauregard, through a flag of truce, had the impudence to demand the surrender of the steamers Mercedita and Keystone State, which he said were captured January 31st.

The steamer from Jacksonville, Florida, has arrived. The following is the latest news: The 6th Connecticut and the 8th Maine regiments have been ordered to reinforce the negro troops. A rebel force had been driven from their original position six miles by the negroes. [illegible] guns were known to be in the town.

Second Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 1st.

NEW YORK, March [illegible].—Sterling exchange 16[illegible]. Cotton [illegible]. Gold firm but unsettled, opening at 50 and closing at [illegible].

WASHINGTON, March 31st.—The President has designated Thursday, 30th of April, as a day of fasting and prayer.

NEW YORK, March 31.—A Hilton Head letter says the [illegible], Wachusett and Pawnee [illegible] to cross the Charleston bar [illegible] at Port Royal [illegible] from Savannah.

A [illegible] letter [illegible] 27th says heavy firing was heard [illegible] previous day in the vicinity of [illegible]. It was thought probable that [illegible] 25th was attacking the batteries at Stono Inlet.

The Savannah Republican of the 25th reports [illegible] two rebel batteries [illegible] on Monday, but no particulars as yet.

MURFREESBORO, March [illegible].—[illegible] news from the rebel army received to-day [illegible] Polk's [illegible] 35 miles south of Shelbyville. [illegible]

CAIRO, March 31st.—The Memphis papers say [illegible] the Lancaster and Switzerland under [illegible] Vicksburg. As soon as [illegible] within range the rebels opened fire. The Lancaster was struck [illegible] times [illegible] complete submersion [illegible]. The Switzerland was badly disabled [illegible].

The [illegible] Hartford and Albatross [illegible] mouth of the canal where she lay at [illegible] [illegible] fourteen times and had three men killed. Both vessels were more or less injured. The expedition from which we had been led to expect so much in the rear of Haines's Bluff is a failure.

CINCINNATI, March 31.—The rebels are rapidly retreating from Kentucky. Pegram at last accounts was hotly pursued, and it is reported that he will have to abandon all the cattle, estimated at 2,000 head.

Murfreesboro dispatches say that a [illegible] report that the rebels must soon attack [illegible] in consequence of the scarcity of provisions. A gentleman from Chattanooga says the rebels have been building immense fortifications. There are already 50 or 60 large guns in position at Bridgeport. They also constructed some earth works at Stephenson, Orchard and Tullahoma.

NEW YORK, March 31.—The Hibernian from Southampton March 18th arrived today, and reports having been spoken to by the Alabama on February 2d. The Alabama had burned the Golden Rule on the 21st, going from Boston to New York. The same day she burned a large vessel bound from California to Queenstown. The La Plata, which had arrived at Southampton, reports the Alabama cruising off the West India islands. The screw steamer S[illegible], intended for the Confederacy, was launched last week. [Here the line broke between here and Marysville and the day before between Marysville and San Francisco.—OPERATOR.]

A PLEA FOR UNITY.—The gallant Gen Rousseau of Kentucky, in a speech at Lancaster, Pennsylvania, gave utterance to these noble words. They deserve to be written in letters of gold:

"No matter what your political predilections may be, unite to save the country, and after that settle questions of policy. Let not your differences of opinion weaken the arms of the brave men who are fighting that you may be free. In the army of the Cumberland, in which I have the honor of commanding a division, officers and men know only the cause of their country. All are united in a common work. No dissensions or jealousies weaken their force."

"Let not your differences of opinion weaken the arms of the brave men who fight that you may be free!" Such is the appeal of a patriot to his fellow countrymen. Such is the rebuke of one who has braved the dangers of the battle field in behalf of his country's flag, to those who would foment discord and rekindle the fires of party. Would that the counsel might be heeded, that the rebuke might go home to every disloyal heart!

Our divisions are fast making us contemptible in the eyes of the world. Our enemies are jubilant, our friends are disgusted and disheartened. The meanest of our neighbors presume to treat us with scorn. Our traducers across the water refer to our miserable wranglings as evidence conclusive that we are 'gone up.' The brutal London Times and its equally brutal echoes, chuckle over our quarrels as a new illustration of the fact, that we are morally and politically rotten, and the sooner we are wiped out the better.

Nor is this the worst. The rebels are speculating upon our weakness. Jeff Davis and his lawless crew are already using our divisions as a weapon for the rebellion. These [illegible] stained traitors have the assurance to tell us to our faces that we are doing more to destroy our own cause than to destroy theirs, and that if they can keep above water a few months longer, we shall be so busily engaged cutting each other's throats we will have no time to attend to our enemies.

Nor worse than this. The rebel chief presumes so far upon our dissensions as to attempt to seduce loyal States. He affects to believe that we are grown so demoralized that he can offer a bribe to the Northwest and buy her over to the Confederate cause!

But it is not yet too late to save the country. [illegible] unity of purpose and action. If [illegible] can only unite as one [illegible] can only be brought [illegible] perils—if they can be induced to forget party interests until the [illegible] we will [illegible]. We have yet arms and navy. We have what is better, the just cause to fight for. We can crush the rebellion in less than ninety days if we will.—Maryland Union Journal.

A SHE TRAITOR.—A report is current in [illegible] and generally believed to be true, that the wife of Jesse D. Bright had crossed General Briggs' lines, carrying sealed dispatches for Jefferson Davis, in which a proposition is made to join the States of Indiana, Illinois and other States west of the Mississippi to the Southern Confederacy. This is [illegible] the steps taken by the traitor [illegible] the United States Senate. If this is [illegible]

OUR [illegible].—[illegible] Nathan Hale, editor of the Boston Advertiser [illegible] 1814 [illegible] 48 [illegible] Franklin Pierce [illegible] at Keene, N H [illegible]. He is the [illegible] editor in the world so far as we know.

NEW TO-DAY.

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all nett profits (less $600) derived from [illegible] whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, hired help, Rents, Drayage, &c., necessary to carry on his business, but no farmer, merchant, mechanic, or any person [illegible] deduct his own labor as so much expense from his income.

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year [illegible] January 1st 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st, 1862, everybody should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year. And as many sources of income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance, Stock, Savings Banks interest, &c. (they having already paid the income tax), are not again taxed. It therefore becomes necessary to have a [illegible] record of the sources of income, that there may be no dispute with the Assessor.

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year, and pay the tax on the amount less $600.

A man may outside of his business spend all and even more than his profits in the business; nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600. And [illegible] with a salary, all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses consume it all.

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May 1863 and is due and payable on or before the 30th June 1863. And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.

PROSPECTUS.

THE UNDERSIGNED TAKE PLEASURE IN [illegible] to the citizens of Dalles City, Wasco County, and the public generally of Oregon and Washington Territory, that on or about Monday, the 6th day of April, we will commence the publication of a Daily and Weekly Newspaper at Dalles City, Oregon, to be called the DEMOCRATIC STATE JOURNAL.

The JOURNAL will be devoted to the interest, the principles and [illegible] of the Democratic [illegible] upon the basis of the State and National platforms of that party, upon which the [illegible] victories in the great States of New York, [illegible] Indiana, Illinois, the and New Jersey were [illegible] and of which such noble and patriotic statesmen as Seymour and Richardson are the champions and defenders. It shall be the aim of the JOURNAL [illegible] the Democratic party, [illegible] speaking the truth and discussing public measures freely, fully and fearlessly, without hope or expectation of favor or reward, other than the proud satisfaction of doing the duty of an [illegible] Citizen.

Due and full attention will be paid to the mining interest [illegible] including all information of [illegible] and [illegible] and gradually developing [illegible] fields East of the Cascade Mountains. To secure early [illegible] a [illegible] intelligent [illegible] in this important branch of industry, arrangements have been perfected which will secure to the JOURNAL authentic and regular correspondence from all the different local [illegible] attracting public attention. The interest of the State, both general and local, will receive prominent attention. In a word, we are determined to publish a journal that may be perused with profit by all.

Free and Easy

The election yesterday was as quiet and goodnatured as if all voted alike. The returns show who was elected, or rather who received the most votes, the actual election may depend on something else, as some of our citizens, not satisfied with the proclamation of the acting Mayor, and perhaps n[illegible] such [illegible] to make confusion enough to secure the defeat of any attempt to elect officers, set up private polls at places not named in the proclamation, and we had the novelty of two establishments—the regular line and the independent line—both open to all comers, and some, not satisfied with voting at one place, to make sure of the improvement of the blessed privilege of self government, voted at both polls. How this free and easy way of doing things is to be considered and disposed of we know not; those concerned will probably discover in due time, but it is certainly desirable that some definite decision should be arrived at, so that hereafter, if attempts should be made to create disorganization, there may be no question as to the right of voters to elect in a regular manner the necessary officers of the city. It may be all right to have two polls in a ward, but if so, why not three or a dozen, and then would it not be convenient to open them in every house or shop? And, though this plan may cause some trouble to the Council in canvassing votes, it would promote the comfort of citizens who do not want to expose themselves on rainy days, and if it bothers the Council they can adjourn or break up for want of a quorum. We are curious to know what the present sagacious Board will do with the offspring of their stupidity and obstinacy.

FISH MARKET.—At the fish market, on the corner of First and Alder streets, kept by Mr Jas. Farrell, can always be found fresh Chinook salmon, sturgeon, mountain trout, and all other kinds of fresh and salt-water fish. Those "Dry Creek" salmon are really delicious. On this point we speak advisedly.

SCHOOL MEETING.—At the school meeting last night the following persons were elected Directors for the ensuing year: T. J. Holmes, S. J. McCormick, and Wm M King.

Miscellaneous Paragraphs

The "no card" fever which raged in New York seems to have subsided. One unfortunate wight recently appended to the notice of his marriage, "no friends to send cards to."

BACKED OUT.—It is reported that exemption for $300 in the Conscription Bill has been struck out, and that those drafted will have to furnish their own substitutes. That is right.

The Southrons are extending the sphere of negro labor in their service. They have no scruples in the matter, and, should the war be long waged, half their soldiers will be as black as their cause.

Nantucket was the only city in Massachusetts that lost in population during the decade between the years 1850 and 1860. The cities of Augusta and Gardiner, in Maine, both decreased in population between the years 1850 and 1860.

The whole number of pupils attending the public schools in New York city is 192,684. The public school expenses for the past year were $1,650,000, or about $8 for each pupil. The increase over the previous year's attendance was 12,000.

The St. Nicholas Hotel, at New York, was sold February 1st, to gentlemen from Kentucky, well known for their connection with the turf. All the leading New York hotels have advanced their fare fifty cents a day; the first class now charge three dollars.

A steam engine which consumes its own smoke and steam and makes no noise is now in successful operation on a horse railroad in New Jersey. It is called a dummy engine, and if the experiment proves as successful as it bids to now, the use of horses for such purposes is about done with.

In New Hampshire, recently, an old man died, who, knowing that he was about to die, made his funeral arrangements, selecting, as he said, "all democrats" to officiate. We have no doubt that he soon found himself in company with none but democrats—with the first rebel of all at their head.

Gen McNeil, whose punishment of guerrillas has been so much commented upon, has been honored with a reception by the Missouri Legislature, and thousands of Missourians have signed a memorial to the President fully approving his action, and recommending him to the favorable notice of the Government.

Semmes the pirate, while in Kingston, offered to sell the $8,000 Treasury Notes which he stole from the Ariel, at 33 per cent discount. One merchant closed the bargain with him, but another stepped in and paid a higher price. The first merchant enraged, cowhided the second, while Semmes bagged the plunder in gold.

PAIN PANACEA.
Is composed entirely of healing gums and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any however delicate to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.
If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.
If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.
If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely and take a dose of it internally morning and at night. It will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.
If you have the Dyspepsia and your food distresses your stomach after eating take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.
If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.
If you have the Diarrhoea or a relaxed state of the bowels take a dose [illegible] and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the part freely [illegible] relieve pain and the swelling [illegible]
If you have a severe toothache, apply the Pain Panacea [illegible] the gum at the same time. It will stop the pain instantly.

A Visit to the Maelstrom

After a little reflection, he named them, and, considering them too reasonable for objection, I accepted them at once. This matter being settled, preparations were immediately hastened for setting forth on the curious and to me fearful adventure; and the next day saw me walking the deck of a snug well rigged schooner, on my way to a sublime scene of peril, that for many a long year had often come up in my fancy with a strange kind of fascination. I need not describe my voyage down to the Maelstrom, for that is of no moment in this connection. It had its excitement and even peril, as all cruising must along that rugged and dangerous coast—steering sharply among rocks, through a foaming, lashing sea—but all thought of minor dangers was swept from my mind, when for the first time I came within hearing of the sullen, heavy roar, that my Norwegian friend informed me proceeded from the awful vortex we were on our way to visit. A sudden tremor seized me at this announcement—which, though the visible effect of excessive awe, seemed rather that of terror to the simple-minded fisherman, who at once declared his willingness to return if I feared to go forward.

"No!" said I, regaining my wonted composure, and becoming more emphatic through a sense of shame at my physical perturbation—"let us forward to the very brink of destruction—as far as the boldest ever dared!"

"Well, there is no danger after all, on such a day as this and with such a breeze," he replied, in a reassuring tone; "and though the novel idea of sailing within the suction of such a roaring, deafening whirl of waters, may make your honor a little timid and uneasy, yet only keep stout faith in the caution and skill of Harold Saufgar, and you'll live to tell your friends a tale of wonders."

From the moment I first heard the distant roar of the Maelstrom, we sailed directly toward it for more than an hour, the sound gradually increasing in volume as we neared it, until it became so loud and heavy that it was with difficulty I could distinguish the different and sometimes rapid orders of the daring fisherman. I was excited by strange emotions, even while only the sense of hearing was reached; but when at length sight was also brought to bear upon the whirling gulf, and I beheld the inky waters revolving around what seemed a mighty pit or cavern and then rolling, tumbling and lashing their swift passage downward to a white bed of foam at the bottom of the great deep, I became thrilled with a sublimity that carried my humbled and awe-stricken soul beyond the consciousness of time into the very presence of great, almighty, and incomprehensible power.

I can never describe the awful Maelstrom as I saw it, heard it, and felt it, in and through my whole being, till I became absorbed in it, and a part of it, and lost to all other existence—because for the soul sublimed and exalted beyond the dominion of its mortal form into the ideal world of idea, there is no sublunary language of sufficient reach and grasp to portray its impressions.

But something is due to the seeker of knowledge, and something I can and will give.

Imagine, then, an area of a mile and a half in diameter. To do this fully and comprehensively, you should fix your eye or your mind upon some object a mile and a half from where you are. Then fancy this broad space to be all water, moving round in a circle, slowly, on the outer edge, but gradually increasing in velocity toward the centre, with a downward inclination of forty-five degrees, so that it looks like a vast hollow gulf of awful depth. Then imagine yourself sailing round on the outer edge of this immense tunnel, with the water black and level on one side of you, and on the other inclined, and running round and downward, rolling, tumbling, rushing, dashing, seething, whirling and boiling, the centre lashed into milk-white foam, and sending up the deafening roar of a thousand Niagaras. If to all this you add the fancy that you are floating around this awful gulf in a frail vessel, that seems only an air bubble, to be sucked in and crushed, and which, while driving before the wind, is now and then caught by a current and turned several points toward destruction, so that the master shouts frantically, and the sailors make almost superhuman exertions to keep her from rushing madly into the vortex, and you pray agonizingly, with breath suspended and hair standing on end, till the wavering balance has inclined to life—if, I say, and you add this to all the rest you get, perhaps as good an external of the scene and situation of the beholder as my poor, feeble descriptive powers are able to convey.

But the internal—when the soul became rapt, absorbed, and lost to the outer sense of danger—lost to all but the mighty overpowering sublimity of this wonderous work of God—no mortal tongue can ever make known!

Amid the bewilderment of this indescribable scene—my eyes dazzled with the whirling, rushing, flashing, dashing, thundering roar—my soul going down into the eternity beyond—the old fisherman laid one hand upon my arm, pointed with the other and shouted

"Look! behold!"

I turned and saw one of the seamen holding a large sea-bird, to one of whose legs was attached a long cord, the other end of which was secured to a short, heavy stick of timber which another sailor was in the act of casting into the sea. As the timber struck the water, the one holding the bird let him go, and with a wild scream he flew to the length of his tether, and then struggled in the air to break his bonds and escape. But the cord held him, and the moving timber took a gradual inclination toward the vortex. While the schooner ran safely back from the gyratory draught, I watched the bird with a glass as the descending timber dragged him downward, fluttering and screaming, and seeming to my excited fancy like some unfortunate spirit being dragged down to perdition. Round and round went the timber, slowly at first, but with steadily increasing velocity, till at last, with quick jerking and rapid descent, the fluttering bird disappeared from my view.

I had seen enough—I had felt the emotions of a life time compressed into a few hours—and we sailed away from the never-to-be-forgotten Maelstrom.

"ARBITRARY ARRESTS BY GEORGE WASHINGTON.—In an admirable work on 'The Trial of the Constitution,' Elwood Fisher mentions an instructive case which occurred at Philadelphia in 1777. Some twenty gentlemen, of high respectability, were arrested by order of the Supreme Executive of this State, at the instance of Congress, banished to a town in Virginia, and there detained. They were not treated as criminals, but with consideration and kindness. Those who chose to declare their allegiance to the Government were released, and all were permitted to return to their homes when it was thought they could be no longer dangerous. These arrests were made with the knowledge and approbation of Washington. A writ of habeas corpus was issued at the instance of the prisoners, but it was disregarded by the officers in charge of them, and soon afterward, September 16, 1777, the Legislature passed a bill indemnifying the Executive Council, and suspending the writ of habeas corpus.

GERMAN BITTERS,

PREPARED BY

DR. C. M. JACKSON,

PHILADELPHIA, PENN.,

WILL EFFECTUALLY CURE

LIVER COMPLAINT,

DYSPEPSIA,

JAUNDICE,

Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and great Depression of Spirits.

And will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Bilious Fever, &c.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY!

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable), hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

Philadelphia, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbronn, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.

DOCTOR VAN ZANDT,

CONSULTING PHYSICIAN & SURGEON.

Office, Corner of Washington and Sansome streets, San Francisco.

The GREAT SUCCESS of this CENTURY as an AID to PRACTICAL MEDICINE.

The Mysterious Problem of Nature, Electricity, made subservient for the Cure of all Nervous and Spinal Diseases.

THAT THIS PRINCIPLE SUCCESSFULLY APPLIED [illegible] prove the great [illegible] physicians, to aid [illegible] organic and functional derangements of the human body. It is a part of that great [illegible] and every [illegible] must have much to do in obviating diseased action.

Too Much Cannot be Said

In its praise [illegible] that in health there is an exact equilibrium of the Electric principle, and [illegible] health is broken [illegible] negatively electrified when it should be positively charged—is not the current broken, and is there not a war of forces going on in the system? This needs correcting, and in order that the [illegible] body should be perceptible to remedial agents, we must first restore an [illegible]

Awaken the Magnetic Life within us

The spinal and [illegible] nervous systems. Believing as I do most firmly in this great magnetic or electrical [illegible] our bodies in health and disease, I am led to take advantage of the [illegible] which to awaken attention to the subject, that good may [illegible]

No Compromise with Disease.

Give the body strength and nature will relieve herself [illegible] liver, heart, and all the natural functions aroused by ELECTRICAL [illegible] the nervous [illegible] dyspeptic and the [illegible] will revive under its benign influence.

To the Ladies of California.

Dr. Van Zandt's success with complaints of women, both in family and [illegible] practice, is owing to his correct views of the [illegible] of all their maladies. Ladies can consult him with entire confidence, as he is no speculator upon human ills—but is proving himself the only member of the legitimate profession in California who is really [illegible] all in relieving those ills which are the peculiar province of the sex. His high appreciation of their delicately [illegible] together with their great sympathetic power [illegible] assuage those silent complaints which they bear so patiently and so long. No subtle disquietude need longer afflict our home circles, for he can awaken the stricken energies, restore the wasted vitality of the body, awaken the melancholy heart and [illegible] those drains which cause so much anxiety, [illegible] maladies which have so long [illegible]

Baffled the Skill of Physicians

Develope appetite, life and animation, dispel [illegible] aches, sinking at the stomach, wandering pains, [illegible] extreme debility and lifelessness, [illegible] sleeplessness, unpleasant dreams and [illegible] depression [illegible] which go to render her [illegible] and death a boon. Dr. Van Zandt, with his [illegible] method of exciting the Electro-Galvanic current, together with his remedial measures which are adapted to the [illegible] of California, will assure you of a complete and radical recovery of all bodily and mental infirmities, and will restore you to usefulness, and spare you a blessing to your family and society.

All the world over

wherever disease exists, whether special to the soil and climate [illegible] to all regions—epidemic or contagious [illegible] it is as [illegible] the ELECTRO-GALVANIC [illegible] in California as it is to give food to the [illegible] This [illegible] facts extending through many years and [illegible] hundreds of patients [illegible] no rule of experience [illegible] rests upon more sure and [illegible] foundations than those which underlie the [illegible] Electricity for the cure of all [illegible] of the body, faulty digestion, mental and physical debility or prostration, coughs, asthma, wandering pains of a rheumatic, gouty or mercurial character, and all forms of disease the result of scrofula or [illegible] habit of body.

None Need Despair of Relief!

If you have ulcers which will not heal—pains that cannot be removed—melancholy which you cannot shake off—loss of power which you cannot regain—depression of spirits which weigh you down—wakefulness that knows no sleeping—business that languishes for want of [illegible] which no society can fill—suspicion which no sane one can allay—Go to Dr. Van Zandt, for his great success and the safety with which he administers his new method of electrical excitation, together with his remedies, are adapted to the requirements of climate and [illegible] will assure you of a complete and radical removal of all bodily and mental infirmities within the scope of science and man to remove.

The Eye and Ear Diseases.

It must not be forgotten by the eye and ear sufferers that Dr. Van Zandt has made these afflictions an especial study, and that he is the only Surgeon in our State who has diplomas for that branch of practice. Very many of the eye and ear troubles are purely deranged nervous action, and are cured by his electro-galvanic battery—[illegible] squinting, external floating specks before the vision, twitching of the eyelids, nervous deafness, [illegible] and buzzing noises in the ears, giddiness, etc. All operations successfully done on those delicate organs of sense.

TO THE PUBLIC

PACIFIC COAST!

HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH BITTERS!

THE LARGE AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING demand for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, on the Pacific coast, renders it the especial duty of the Manufacturers and Proprietors to place their fellow-citizens west of the Rocky Mountains fully on their guard against the PERNICIOUS COUNTERFEITS which have recently been introduced in California, and other parts of the Pacific coast, by IMPOSTERS who have PIRATED the great RESTORATIVE.

These villains who subsist by pirating have exhibited a cunning equal to their rascality, by selecting this popular STOMACH BITTERS. Some dealers of whom better things might have been expected have connived at the IMPOSITION for the purpose of sharing in the plunder. On the principle that the receiver is as bad as the thief, and that the passer of spurious money is as bad as the forger, the makers and venders of COUNTERFEIT HOSTETTER'S BITTERS stand on the same [illegible]

The public are cautioned not to purchase any article purporting to be HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS without first scrutinizing well the package and bottle, so as to be certain that they get the GENUINE, or purchase from Dealers of known integrity, who would not be guilty of selling SPURIOUS ARTICLES, or of the Agents, Messrs. Hostetter, Smith & Dean, No. [illegible] Montgomery street, Russ Block, San Francisco.

The COUNTERFEITERS doubtless hoped, and expected, that in regions thousands of miles away from the seat of [illegible] the GENUINE BITTERS, they would be able to palm off their SPURIOUS COMPOUND with less chance of detection and molestation. In this expectation they will be disappointed. The undersigned are determined to protect themselves against fraud, and their customers against its baleful consequences, and have no doubt that through their agents, the influence of the press and the fear of the law, they will succeed in crushing IMPOSTURE at this distant field of operation, as they have already crushed it nearer home.

The general acceptance of the BITTERS as the best known preventive and remedy for the malarious diseases of unhealthy soils and climates, is a just tribute to the disinfectant and vitalizing properties of the preparation. Whoever goes to the gold mines, or travels through or settles in any portion of our Pacific territory, without providently furnishing himself with a supply of this potent prophylactic antidote to the effect of insalubrious air and bad water, does so at the imminent risk of health and life; and in the face of a volume of testimony to its absolute and corrective properties which ought to satisfy the most incredulous. The unacclimated will find it the best protective against the epidemic diseases of the country, and against all epidemic maladies. Furnished with this preservative, the pioneer may fearlessly prosecute his search for gold and silver in valleys and plains where his less fortunate predecessors have left their bones. The [illegible] and unwholesome water which serves alike to quench his thirst and cleanse his person may be drunk with impunity if mixed with this powerful and agreeable corrective, and the miasma which lurks in the soil of the [illegible] will have no power to [illegible] upon his system if [illegible] wholesome [illegible] and stomachic. He may sleep wrapped in his blanket [illegible] by night, and work beneath the hot [illegible] by day, without [illegible] the usual penalties of remittent fever, diarrhea, dysentery and [illegible] if he [illegible] his constitution [illegible] by a [illegible] use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. Miners and [illegible] chiefly on animal food without vegetables will find the preparation [illegible] as a protective against scurvy and other [illegible] diseases.

Of the above merits [illegible] the BITTERS the proprietors of the preparation [illegible] speak from actual experience, but they have the next best evidence [illegible] THE SPONTANEOUS TESTIMONY of [illegible] of Californians and of hundreds NOW ENGAGED IN MINING in various parts of the Pacific States.

While recommending their Bitters strongly and earnestly [illegible] would call attention also to its [illegible] In fever and ague [illegible] all that class of intermittents, it is the best medicine that can be taken to break up the chills and restore the strength of the patient. For [illegible] it is an absolute specific, combining the properties of a gentle cathartic with those of an alterative and [illegible] It has an excellent effect in [illegible] sickness at the stomach, nervous headache, [illegible] disorders of the blood and [illegible] generally. It also possesses important anti-bilious [illegible] and [illegible] the action of the liver and other secretive organs, has no equal among the [illegible] health [illegible] will find great benefit from its use [illegible] and use their [illegible] the aged and decrepit it stands alone among vegetable [illegible] HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS can be considered [illegible] the authority of perhaps the strongest array of voluntary witnesses that have ever testified to the value of any advertised [illegible] as the purest, the most reliable, the most general and successful constitutional and physical invigorant, preventive and restorative now before the public.
